6. FACTS

10. THE DEFENDANTS ARE INTENTIONALLY VIOLATING A COURT ORDER.

On July 15, 2013, Defendants filed suit against Plaintiff, Ali Choudhri, by way of their Original Petition in a case styled, Osama Abdullatif and Abdullatif & Company, LLC v. Ali Choudhri and Houston Real Estate Properties, LLC; Cause No. 2013-41273, in the 334th Judicial District Court of Harris County, Texas (“the Original Lawsuit”). The Original Lawsuit was subsequently transferred to the 55th Judicial District Court of Harris County Texas.

11. On November 21, 2022, a Final Judgment (the “Judgment”) was signed in favor of Plaintiffs (the Defendants herein) in the Original Lawsuit against the Plaintiffs in the present case. The Judgment is currently pending on appeal before the First Court of Appeals in Houston, Texas.

12. A month before the Judgment was entered, on October 7, 2022, Defendant in the Original Lawsuit, Houston Real Estate Properties, LLC (“HREP”), filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas.

13. On February 23, 2023, the final Judgment was superseded by cash deposit made by the Plaintiff, Ali Chaudhri, of the required judgment amount in lieu of a bond. The Court entered an order dated February 27, 2023, which stated that the cash deposit of the required amount will “supersede the Judgment pursuant to Rule 24.1(c) of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure.” Attached hereto as Exhibit A.

14. Pursuant to the Court’s February 27, 2023 Order, any and all enforcement of the Judgment and collection actions by Judgment Creditors (the Defendants in this present case) were suspended until further order of the Court. Id. The Court’s February 27, 2023, Order further required that no abstract of judgment or instrument was to be filed that would constitute a lien on the real property of the Judgment Debtor (the Plaintiffs in this present case). Id. It also prohibited any collection attempts on the Judgment.

15. Plaintiffs' cash deposit effectively stayed all enforcement actions related to the Judgment, including the post-judgment collection, enforcement or discovery previously issued by Defendants in the Original Lawsuit.

16. Defendants are intentionally ignoring the Court's ORDER. When Defendants were stopped from pursuing collection in state court, they engaged in blatant forum shopping by filing an adversary complaint in the Southern District of Texas. The case is styled: Case No. 22-32998; John Quinlan, Omar Khawaja, and Osama Abdullatif v. Houston Real Estate Properties, LLC et. al, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas Houston Division. ("Adversary Action"). A true and correct copy of the Adversary Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The claims in the Adversary Action are alter ego claims made against Shanaz Choudhri, Jetall and over 30 other entities, alleging that Defendant Abdullatif has not been able to collect on the Judgment because of the actions of these third parties. The purpose of the Adversary Action is to collect on the Judgment.

17. The Judgment is used by these Defendants as a key prong in their allegations that they have been unable to collect the Judgment, and that failure must be the result of fraud, alter ego or other nefarious behavior. Osama Abdullatif has been conducting discovery in the Adversary Action to collect the Judgment in violation of the Order. In addition to using the Judgment as a prong to bring a specious case in the Southern District, the Defendants used the Judgment as a basis to file a proof of claim in the case styled: Case No. 24-10120; In Re: Texas Reit, LLC in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas Austin Division. A true and correct copy of the proof of claim is attached hereto as Exhibit C. In the proof of claim, Defendant

Abdullatif states under oath that the Judgment is due and owing. It fails on every level to inform the bankruptcy court that the Judgment has been superseded and that he is under a Court Order not to pursue enforcement.

18. The Court's Order<sup>1</sup> is clear on this issue, "any and all enforcement of the Judgment is suspended" and the Defendants are prohibited from filing "any instrument that constitutes or purports to constitute a lien on Plaintiffs' real property;"<sup>2</sup> which the Defendants have continued to do. Under oath, Mr. Abdullatif testified that he was not aware that the Judgment had been superseded. Of course, he knows it has, even a cursory review of the docket shows the post judgment process has been heavily litigated by Defendant Abdullatif's lawyers.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendants are also actively contacting individuals and entities and misrepresenting the nature and amount of the Judgment in an effort to interfere with Plaintiffs' business practices.

20. Despite the Court's February 23, 2024, Order and Plaintiffs' deposit of the amount required to supersede the Judgment in the Original Lawsuit, Defendants have informed Plaintiffs that they will continue post-judgment discovery and other actions to collect and enforce the Judgment and interfere with Plaintiffs' business(es). Included within Defendants' actions to collect the Judgment is to sue Mrs. Chaudhri, under theories that all claim that they cannot collect on the Judgment because Ali Chaudhri has improperly transferred money and that she is the alter ego of her son and at least 30 other companies. Defendants have made the same allegations against Jetall and has been conducting discovery against Jetall in order to collect the Judgment.

21. Indeed, on November 25, 2024, Defendant Osama Abdullatif's attorney, Michael Ballases took a deposition of Plaintiff, Shanaz Choudhri, which is in furtherance of Abdullatif's collection attempts on the Judgment. Defendant Abdullatif was not present at the deposition but his administrative assistant, Beth Mendez was present. Ms. Mendez works for Defendant Abdullatif & Company, LLC. During Plaintiff, Shanaz Choudhri's deposition, Defendant Abdullatif's counsel presented bank statements that allegedly were Mrs. Choudhri's bank statements, but Defendant Abdullatif has never disclosed how any of these statements were obtained. So not only is Defendant Abdullatif violating an Order, but he is also illegally obtaining financial information of third parties in ongoing efforts to collect on the Judgment.

22. Defendants attempted, on multiple occasions, to improperly obtain discovery in the Original Lawsuit. Each time, the Court determined that the discovery requests were improper as the basis for discovery requests became moot as a result of the Judgment being superseded. Thereafter, Defendants unlawfully used the Judgment as the basis for their adversary claim in attempt to collect monies from the Plaintiffs through misplaced allegations of alter ego<sup>3</sup> and filed a proof of claim that never disclosed the fact that the Judgment is superseded.

23. Trial in the Adversary Action is currently set for December 10, 2024; further heightening the emergent nature of the relief requested herein.

7. COUNT I—VIOLATION OF SUPERSEDED JUDGMENT

Plaintiffs incorporate paragraphs 1 through 19 herein by reference.

24. The Judgment was superseded by cash deposit in lieu of bond. The Court entered an order on February 23, 2024, memorializing the effects of the superseded bond concerning the collection and enforcement of the Judgment. Pursuant to the Court's February 23, 2024, Defendants were not to make attempts to collect the Judgment as Plaintiffs' cash deposit effectively stayed all enforcement actions related to the Judgment, including the post-judgment collection or discovery. Despite the Court's February 23, 2024, Order and Plaintiffs' deposit of the amount required to supersede the Judgment in the Original Lawsuit, Defendants continue post-judgment collection, discovery and other actions to enforce the Judgment and interfere with Plaintiffs' business(es).

8. COUNT II—TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE

25. Plaintiffs incorporate paragraphs 1 through 21 herein by reference.

26. Despite actual knowledge that the Judgment is superseded, Defendants are willfully and intentionally interfering with Plaintiffs' business relations by unlawfully seeking discovery from individuals and entities who have or may conduct business with Plaintiffs. Defendants continue to tortiously interfere with Plaintiffs' current and prospective business relations.

9. ATTORNEYS' FEES

27. Plaintiffs request attorneys' fees and expenses pursuant to applicable Texas law.

10. APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

28. Plaintiffs incorporate the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

29. A temporary restraining order is necessary in order to stop Defendants from enforcing the superseded judgment, conducting post-judgment discovery, the attachment of liens to Plaintiffs' real property, and interfering with Plaintiffs' business relations.

30. The threatening and ongoing injuries are immediate, and they have and will directly and proximately cause irreparable harm to Plaintiffs. As described above, Defendants' continued pursuit of collection and enforcement of the Judgment despite the cash deposit in lieu of bond and court order superseding same, will continue to expose Plaintiffs to financial, economic, and reputational harms. These harms include, but are not limited to, loss of revenue, loss of property value, and loss of good will and reputation with Houston business partners, creditors, and customers. The total current and prospective loss to Plaintiffs resulting from Defendants' conduct is irreparable and incalculable. This entitles Plaintiffs to injunctive relief. The balance of the equities is served by an injunction as it protects Plaintiffs' ownership rights, goodwill, business reputation and property. A temporary restraining order is necessary to preserve the status quo between the parties pending appeal of the Original Lawsuit.

31. Plaintiffs are entitled to a temporary restraining order, temporary injunction and permanent injunction against Defendants (and their agents, servants, employees, and anyone in active concert or participation) that: attempts to collect, execute or enforce the Judgment that has been superseded by cash deposit in the Original Lawsuit; conduct or execute post-judgment discovery, litigation on or from parties to the Original Lawsuit, or non-parties related to the Original Lawsuit, or to Plaintiffs' business(es); attempt to obstruct, thwart, disrupt, or derail in any manner, the lawful business practices of Plaintiffs, and their related business entities, in the marketplace.

32. Plaintiffs are not opposed to posting an appropriate bond, although Plaintiffs assert that a low bond is appropriate in this case because Defendants will suffer no monetary losses because of a grant of injunctive relief.

10. REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY INJUNCTNION

33. Plaintiffs fully incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if stated herein.

34. Plaintiffs will, at a hearing, demonstrate the likelihood of success on the merits and the balancing of equities favors the issuance of a temporary injunction and eventually a permanent injunction against Defendants.

35. Plaintiffs have joined all indispensable parties under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure

11. REQUEST FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION

36. Plaintiffs fully incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if stated herein.

37. Plaintiffs ask the Court to set their request for a permanent injunction for a full trial on the merits and, after the trial, issue a permanent injunction against the Defendants.

12. REQUEST FOR PRESERVATION

38. Plaintiffs fully incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if stated herein.

39. Plaintiffs request that Defendants preserve all documents, electronic or otherwise, that pertain to the matters addressed in this pleading and to not discard, destroy, or conceal such documents from this point forward.

13. MOTION FOR EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

40. Plaintiffs fully incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if stated herein.

41. The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure provide that the procedures and limitations set forth in the rules pertaining to discovery may be modified in any suit by court order for good cause. Tex. R. Civ. P. 191.1. “[T]he trial court has discretion to schedule discovery and may shorten or lengthen the time for making a response for good cause.” In re Nat’l Lloyds Ins. Co., No. 13-15-00390-CV, 2015 WL 6759153, at *5 (Tex. App. Nov. 3, 2015) (affirming the trial court’s broad discretion to fashion expedited discovery pursuant to a temporary injunction hearing). “Good cause” exists to expedite discovery in this proceeding to allow Plaintiffs to obtain information from Defendants because Plaintiffs are seeking injunctive relief.

42. This discovery is essential for Plaintiffs to prepare for the upcoming temporary injunction hearing. As such, Plaintiffs pray for the entry of an order granting this motion and allowing the parties to conduct discovery on an expedited basis.

14. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

43. Plaintiffs fully incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if stated herein.

44. All conditions precedent to Plaintiffs' claims for relief have been performed or have occurred.

15. REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

45. Plaintiffs request disclosure, within 50 days of service of this petition, of all information and materials required under Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 194.2.

16. JURY DEMAND

46. Plaintiffs hereby file with the Clerk of the Court their written request for a jury trial on all triable issues and tender the required jury fee.

17. PRAYER

47. For the reasons outlined above, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court issue citation for Defendants to appear and answer, and that Plaintiffs be awarded a judgment against the Defendants for the following:

- (a) Temporary Injunction;
- (b) Permanent Injunction;
- (c) Actual Damages;
- (d) Exemplary Damages;
- (e) Prejudgment and post judgment interest;
- (f) Court costs;

- (g) Reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees;
- (h) All other relief to which Plaintiffs are entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
